Cage Combat Fighting Championships brings MMA action to Solano County Fairgrounds

Vallejo, CA – Cage Combat Fighting Championships brings exciting Mixed Martial Arts fighting to the Solano County Fairgrounds in Vallejo this Saturday, December 3.

The fight card features 14 battles, including a lightweight matchup between Nicholas Rapacon of Vallejo and Erik Aquilar of Napa. A women’s featherweight matchup will feature Maritza Sanchez and Arlene Culbreth, both from the Sacramento area.

The much anticipated main battle will be a rematch in the welterweight class between Raymond Lopez, ranked fourteenth in the state, and Lucus Gubbins, ranked fourth.

Cage Combat Fighting Championships has been promoting Mixed Martial Arts fighting in Northern California for the past ten years. Their motto has always been “Where the Best Do Battle” and is the philosophy that drives their focus on featuring fighters from Northern California’s top mixed martial art schools. That tradition continues as they celebrate their 10th anniversary by making the Solano County Fairgrounds their home for exciting MMA action.

The “Contender Series” will be held in McCormack Hall at the Solano County Fairgrounds. Doors open at 5 p.m. with the first fight starting at 6 p.m. Ticket prices start at $40 for general admission, $60 for VIP seating, and $100 for ringside seats.

For tickets and sponsorship opportunities call 707-287-8457. Keep up to date on fight information on Facebook at Cage Combat Fighting Championships.

Cage Combat Fighting Championships is sponsored in part by Ken Mays Plumbing, Napa Electric, Suncoast Awning, DNS Cage Rentals and the U.S. Army.
